Welcome

Seasonal & Local RVers, Snowbirds & RV Travelers to our Grand Canyon State

any time of the year. The spectacular Grand Canyon is Arizona's number one visitor attraction and one of the Seven Wonders of the World. It is truly magnificent, with steep one mile drop-offs to the canyon floor with the mighty Colorado River flowing through it. But, there is so much more in Arizona with its multitude of elevations and variations in ecosystems throughout, offering stunning landscapes ... all showing-off the best Arizona has to offer.

What an ideal RVing setting for travelers, exploring its many unique and diverse landscapes. This Arizona State RV Travel Guide represents the entire RV industry in Arizona, highlighting a variety of interesting places to visit and enjoy. For ease of access it is divided into nine user-friendly regions, with each providing access to area Visitor Centers that offer more detailed local information - RV resorts known for their variety of recreation and social activities, RV related services, state park listings with RV sites, access to primitive camping in National Parks & U.S. Forests, and information on primary attractions and outdoor adventures for today's younger, more active RVer.

New in this annual issue is an Outdoor Recreation section, highlighting numerous outdoor recreation opportunities throughout Arizona's vast scenic wonderland. It includes listings, feature editorial, promotional information and incredible photo images by the Arizona Office of Tourism, AZ State Parks & Trails, Arizona Game & Fish and other recreation oriented public and private services. Learn about unique places to visit, explore and have fun! On page 16, enjoy a scenic drive in southeastern Arizona as described by Roger Naylor, Arizona's premier travel writer and author. This is a perfect addition, complimenting the RV lifestyle. The RV industry is the largest outdoor recreation organization per the National Outdoor Recreation industry, who realize many outdoor enthusiasts enjoy a number of recreation adventures.

Discover other new finds - our deep cultural heritage with a Native American Indian and Mexico influence. Visit our three larger urban settings of Phoenix and surrounding urban communities within the Valley of the Sun, Tucson and Flagstaff ... each with their diverse cuisine, major league sports, popular entertainment venues, shopping at regional centers and advanced education at the three state universities. Enjoy small town appeal in unique communities scattered throughout our rural desert, many of which have an historic Wild West and mining background. Some were almost abandoned when local mines closed, then were taken over during the hippie movement in the 70s and now they have emerged into vibrant artist communities, with local artists recognized internationally and emerging artists demonstrating notable talent. Enjoy the architecture of historic buildings, distinct flavors at local eateries, sip award-winning wine grown in Arizona, unique specialty shops, art galleries, visits with local characters and views of local points of interest.

Get Outdoors - enjoy a variety of opportunities, from hiking numerous trails (many graded for their level of difficulty), cast a line in a stunning stream or lake, go boating on a choice of lakes, ski during winter in the high desert mountains, find your ball on a multitude of golf courses, with permission, venture into tribal lands, hug a giant Saguaro (not recommended), or find a spot to sit quietly and embrace our incredible expansive landscapes.

Whether you stay a day, week, month, season or for the full year, enjoy our diverse landscape, casual lifestyle, historic mining & western theme communities, ease of access to Mexico and so much more our grand state offers.

Enjoy Rving in Arizona ... What a Life!

The Arizona State RV Travel Guide

welcomes you to the best state in the U.S. for unique natural beauty, cultural variety and all-around RVing excellence. With the help of this exclusive guide, and corresponding website azrvguide.com, you won't miss any of the many attractions, activities and unique recreational adventures Arizona has to offer.

The generous support and participation of the advertisers in the Guide allow you to receive this resource free of charge, with continuous, extensive distribution throughout Arizona, the northern states and Canada.

Please show your appreciation by taking advantage of their products and services.

How to use the Guide

The 2021 Arizona State RV Travel Guide provides descriptions and details about each listed RV park or resort, organized by region, within the state. It also includes visitor centers, local attractions and services in each area.

The Arizona map on the next page shows the entire state and how it is divided into user friendly color-coded regions. Go to the region you're interested in and browse each park or resort listed there, to find out what they offer and how to contact them directly. If a park is not listed, contact the area Chamber of Commerce or Visitor Center for updated information.

The Arizona Office of Tourism (AOT) provided special cooperative marketing funding, enabling rural non-profit tourism entities to promote their communities.

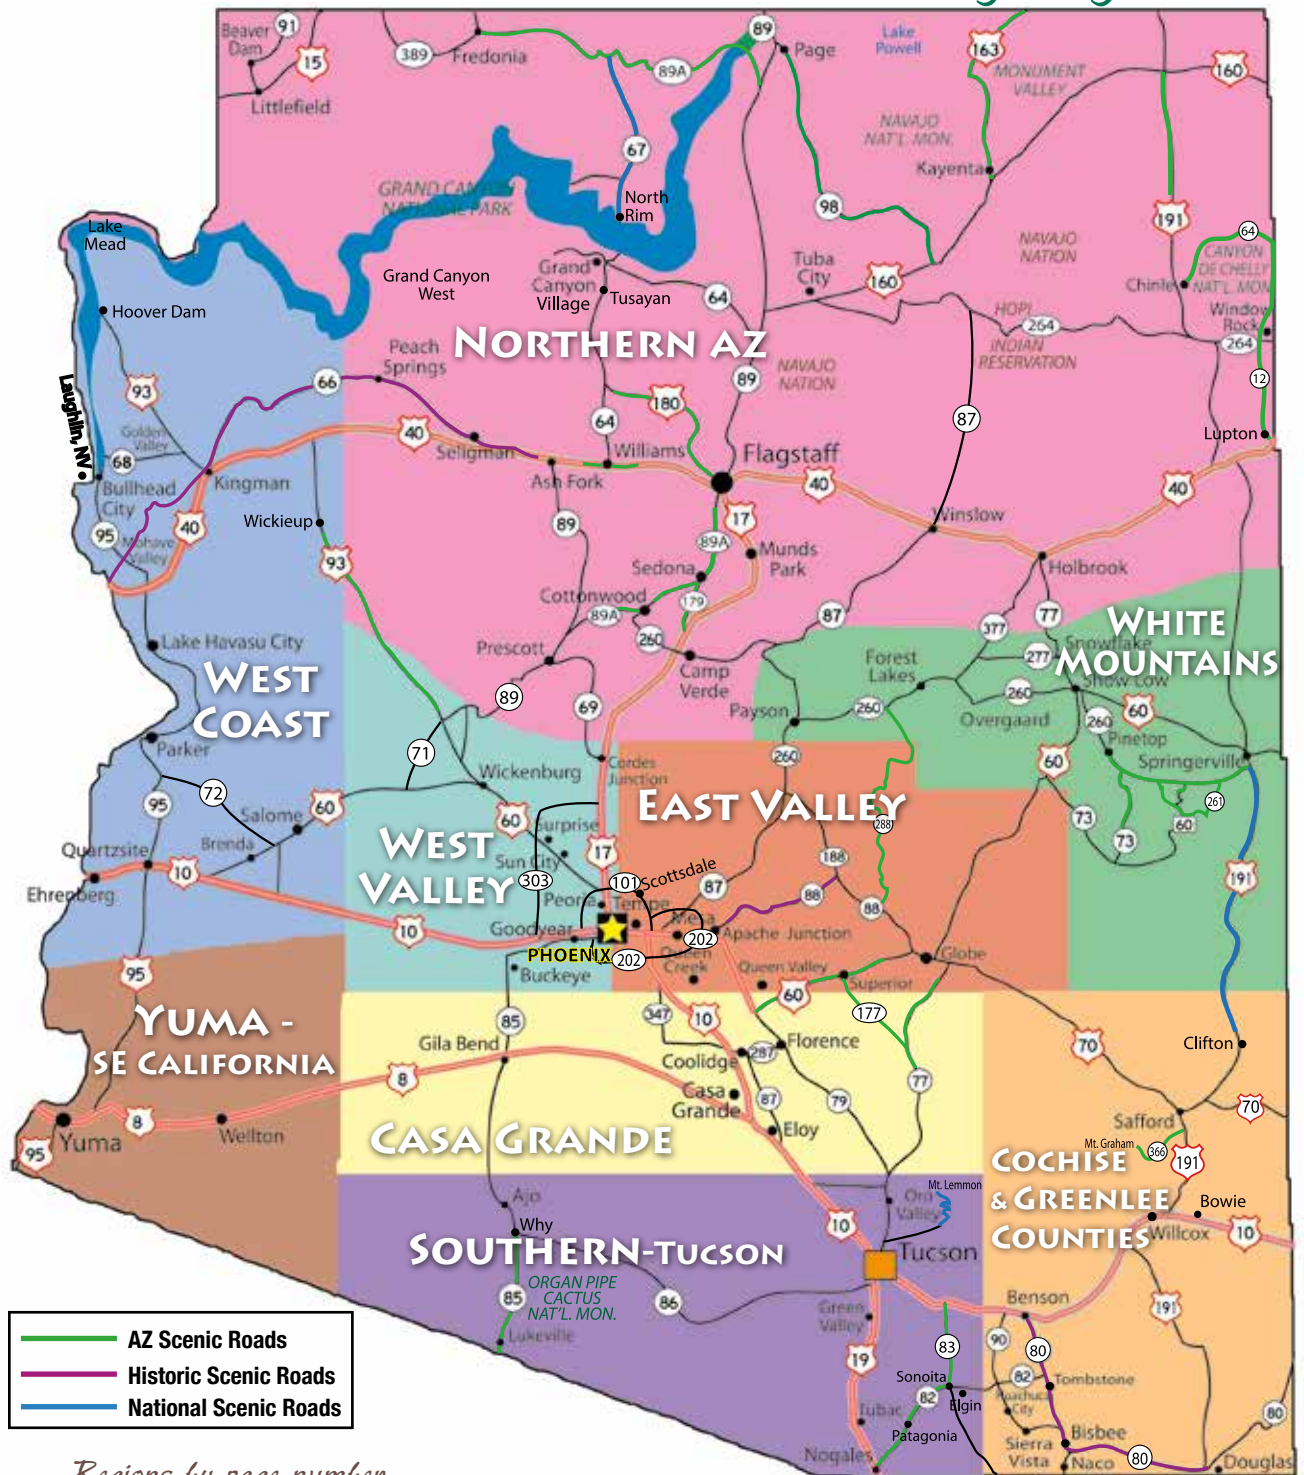

Some of the advertisers are local, some offer services and supplies statewide. So view the entire contents of this Guide and its Business Directory to be sure to see it all!

Get Out! Enjoy recreation opportunities throughout Arizona's vast outdoor playground

We are gifted in Arizona, with more diverse landscape and varied elevations offering an abundance of year 'round outdoor recreation adventures than in most states. Northern Arizona's high desert, with elevations from 7,000' to over 11,000', provides a cool summer getaway with biking, water activities, boating, hunting and superb fishing on numerous pristine, clear water lakes. Popular winter sports can extend into late spring.

Though toasty during summer, the lower desert throughout southern Arizona is an ideal warm, winter desert setting, attracting snowbirds from northern states & Canada. They enjoy all the recreation and social activities in RV resorts and mature adult communities. Today they are younger and more active, desiring access to a variety of outdoor sports, recreation activities, places to explore and discovery of new finds.

The RV industry is the largest of a 32-member coalition active in the National Outdoor Recreation Roundtable (ORR), which promotes growth of the outdoor recreation economy and a variety of its activities. They serve over 100,000 businesses nationally with 5.2 million jobs and a $778 billion outdoor economy. ORR and other recreation-oriented services were successful in promoting the newly passed Great American Outdoors Act, creating annual funding for public lands, parks and trails - the backbone of the outdoor recreation economy.

This addition compliments the RV lifestyle as many outdoor enthusiasts who enjoy a number of outdoor recreation activities use a trailer, motor home or fifth-wheel RV to haul their recreation toys and have a comfortable place to stay in these self-contained mobile units.

R V there yet? Only if you Get Out and enjoy Arizona's vast year 'round outdoor recreation opportunities! Our participating advertiser/sponsors are dedicated in providing the highest quality customer service to ensure your outdoor enjoyment. They sponsor this print & digital resource Guide. Please patronize them and thank them for providing access to some of Arizona's incredible outdoor recreation opportunities.

STATE PARKS & TRAILS

Roads Less Traveled

by Roger Naylor

It's hard to imagine a place more perfectly designed for road trips than Arizona.

This is a big old state, the sixth largest in the union, covering nearly 114,000 square miles. Since most of Arizona's population centers are found in clustered bunches, that leaves vast tracts of scenic backcountry. It's sprinkled with just the right number of small towns to add character and to keep travelers gassed up and well fed.

For more than four decades I've rambled around this astonishing state. At first it was just for fun because I was swoony in love with everything I saw. But for the past couple of decades it's been my job as an Arizona travel writer and author. So when I steer you toward a two-lane back road worth exploring, trust me. I know what I'm talking about. Here's one of my favorites.

Patagonia-Sonoita Scenic Road

I like to surprise people with this drive. Pastoral grasslands, vineyards, and hidden lakes are among the last things most people expect to find in Southern Arizona, just miles from the Mexican border.

The road starts in sure-enough desert, leaving Interstate-10 at Exit 281 about 20 miles east of Tucson. Head south on Arizona 83 amid cactus and mesquite scrubland. After climbing through a rugged canyon the road bends southeast to cross a virtual sea of grass.

Sprinkled with oak trees and lightly carved by stream channels, this is part of the vast Sonoita Plain. It's a delicious horizon-stretching expanse of soft rolling hills that seems to go on forever.

Champagne-colored grasses sway at the touch of every breeze. Mountains that once dominated are shoved back by this unexpected savanna. This is a land built for covered wagons and bison herds. These are wide-open spaces where the Old West still lives and breathes. If God has a lawn, this is it.

For an exquisite glimpse into the past, stop by Empire Ranch, dating back to the 1870s. Take a tour of ranch headquarters or stroll through the cottonwood trees shading the wash and try to guess how many movies have been filmed here. Hint: It's a lot.

Sonoita straddles the junction of Arizona 83 and Arizona 82, looking more crossroads than town. Yet this is the cradle of Arizona's wine industry, where it all began. Several vineyards and wine tasting rooms dot the hills, most in Elgin, 9 miles east. So belly up to the bar and order a shot of merlot with overtones of plum and oak, pilgrim.

A young visitor enjoys time on the sandy beach at Patagonia Lake State Park

About a dozen miles southwest of Sonoita on Arizona 82, Patagonia nestles in a long green valley. Shops, galleries and eateries surround the big community park that anchors downtown. The picturesque setting makes Patagonia a beloved destination for road trippers. The tree-lined hamlet is known as an arts community, a haven for birders, and a hotspot for butterflies - possibly the most charming triple threat ever.

Grab a bite at Velvet Elvis in downtown Patagonia where designer pizzas are built using a savory whole-wheat crust as a platform, sturdy but light and perfectly charred, with an eclectic but beautifully balanced blend of toppings (292 Naugle Ave., 520-394-2102, velvetelvispizza.com).

A few miles south of Patagonia is the turnoff for Patagonia Lake State Park. Tucked away amid rolling hills, the 250-acre lake offers boating, fishing, water skiing, camping, and a sandy swimming beach. Boat rentals are available. The park also provides access to the Sonoita Creek Natural Area with over 20 miles of hiking trails.

Dozens of shops and galleries line the shady streets in the village of Tubac

A few more miles crossing grassy ridges, skirting small canyons with nice views of the Patagonia Mountains and the road ends in Nogales. This is the largest border city in Arizona. If you're hungry, step into Cocina La Ley and you'll feel like you wandered a few blocks south and are dining across the border. Soups and tacos make up the menu, an excellent variety of each. The spicy seafood broth is a house favorite (226 W. 3rd St., 520-287-4555, cocinalaley.com).

You can return the way you came because there's plenty to see all over again. The other option is to travel north to Tucson via Interstate 19 from Nogales. Now I'm a firm believer in the mathematical theorem: the fewer the lanes of highway, the greater the chance for adventure. So I don't normally advocate interstates as part of the travel experience. But there are so many attractions, both scenic and historic, spread along I-19 that it's worth the journey.

Here's another fun fact: I-19 connecting Tucson and Mexico is America's only metric interstate. Distances are posted in meters and kilometers.

Stops worth considering along I-19 include Tumacacori National Historical Park, protecting the remains of a mission established by Father Eusebio Francisco Kino in 1691. The grounds feature a weathered sunlit church, mortuary chapel and cemetery.

Nearby Tubac sprang up as a presidio, or fort, in 1752 making it the first European settlement in what would become Arizona. Today, 80-plus shops are clustered around a central plaza in Tubac, a beloved artist haven. There's a whiff of emergent Santa Fe here without the jostling crowds. Tubac doesn't even have a traffic light and it's easy while exploring the district to fall into a relaxed and carefree rhythm. And isn't that what travel is all about?

Casa Grande

Western Pinal County
The Golden Corridor

Just far enough away from big city excitement, Casa Grande, between Phoenix and Tucson, is a welcome retreat for RVers seeking a more rural setting. Shopping and services are plentiful here, serving rural communities in this western "Golden Corridor" of Pinal County.

This area is not as well known, as most are in a hurry to travel between Tucson and the Valley. A more agricultural area, Pinal County's priority is to encourage economic development to enhance its income base and retain workers locally. Western Pinal County has three distinct areas - the Gila River and Ak-Chin tribes near Maricopa, just south of Chandler, Casa Grande with Coolidge and Florence east and Eloy/Arizona City further south off I-10. The Greater Casa Grande Chamber, Sunland Visitor Center in Eloy and community chambers of commerce offer information on where to explore and enjoy this western portion of the county.

West of Casa Grande near Stanfield is Shamrock Farms, with an excellent farm tour of this Arizona dairy products company. The Dwarf Car Museum is also nearby. Northwest of Coolidge is the Casa Grande Ruins National Monument, a prehistoric site built by the Hohokam. Production is becoming active at Lucid Motors' new manufacturing facility in Casa Grande with its new electric car and trucks rivaling its nearest competitors.. Eloy has become the largest sky diving center in the world, with experienced staff, excellent facilities, great weather and drop zone for skydivers of all skill levels.

There are plenty of family-owned and operated eateries, excellent antiquing and a variety of unique finds in local stores. Come explore our hidden gems!

Cochise & Greenlee Counties

One of Arizona's most beautiful areas, Cochise and Greenlee Counties are rich with legends of the Wild West, mining and military history.

A drive between Willcox and Bowie on I-10 will take you to Apache Pass, once the site of many Apache-Army conflicts, and the Butterfield stagecoach route. The Fort Bowie National Historic Site, located just south of the Pass, provides a glimpse into the rugged life of the western Army soldiers who lived and sometimes died here.

Clifton is north of I-10 on Highway 191, located on the San Francisco River where Geronimo was born, Coronado walked, history abounds and copper is king.

Bisbee was once an overcrowded mining town. Now, it's the charming, artist-loving seat of Cochise County.

Douglas and Naco are just north of the Mexico border, with the Douglas-Agua Prieta port of entry crossing. Enjoy Agua Prieta's Mexican "flavor" and access affordable medical services.

Sierra Vista is a fast growing modern community, just to the east of Fort Huachuca, an active historic Army base.

Everyone who has seen a western movie knows about the violent history of Tombstone. Much of the actual hangouts of Doc Holiday and Wyatt Earp have been preserved and regular "gun fights" add to the drama.

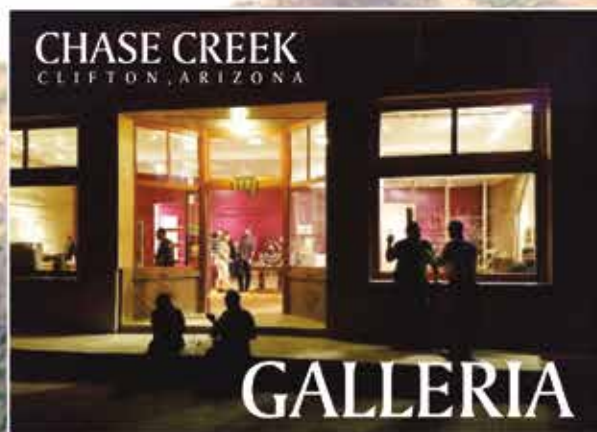

Benson, known today as the Gateway to Kartchner Caverns State Park, was founded and still operates as a rail terminal for the area.

Take a Historic Highway 80 Road Trip Through Cochise County

by Bob Nilson, Benson Visitor Center

US Route 80, the "Broadway of America", was a major transcontinental highway that opened in Arizona back in November, 1926. It served the major cities of Phoenix and Tucson. US 80 followed the old Spanish Gila Trail, the main southern wagon train route to California. In 2018, surviving segments were designated Historic US Route 80. The 72 mile drive from Benson (exit 303 off I-10) down to Douglas at the border makes for a fine day trip by car or RV.

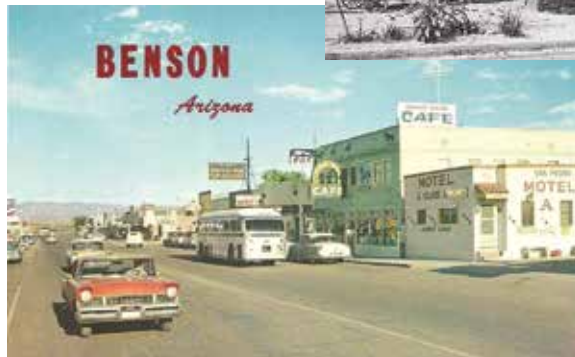

Tombstone, Bisbee, and Douglas - four historic cities that you'll visit on your trip today.

Most of original Highway 80 still exists. From Benson to Tombstone, new SR 80 follows the same path as it did in 1926, with a few changes. You can still see the old bridges several hundred feet to the west. From Tombstone to Bisbee, the highway is almost the same as the old US 80. It still comes up Mule Canyon to Bisbee, although they added Mule Tunnel in 1956 instead of going over the original Mule Pass. And guess what - at the top of the grade, just before the tunnel entrance, you are driving over the Continental Divide! Old Highway 80 then proceeded down Tombstone Canyon through present-day Bisbee, south

Early roads used "Macadam" pavement, invented by John McAdam of Scotland in the 18th century. McAdam's road cross-section was composed of a compacted subgrade of crushed granite covered by a surface of light stone to prevent damage from wagon wheels and to shed water to roadside drainage ditches. When automobiles started using these roads after the turn of the 20th century, vehicle speeds created a vacuum, pulling vast amounts of dust into the air. To remedy the dust problem, the road builders covered the Macadam with asphalt or tar, giving the new surface the name "Tarmac."

through Lowell, then veered east to Douglas. The road has been re-aligned slightly between Bisbee and Douglas to straighten out the curves, meeting today's safety standards. In Douglas it went down G Avenue to the Gadsden Hotel, where it then turned east on 10th Street before turning to head northeast another 48 miles, crossing into New Mexico at Rodeo on the way to Lordsburg.

You can retrace the trip on Historic Highway 80 today and see many of the same sights and vistas that your great grandparents saw 90-plus years ago. The uniquely beautiful land is the same, but today, you'll enjoy the trip in the comfort of your modern, air-conditioned car or RV!

RV Adventurers --

CITY OF TOMBSTONE, ARIZONA

The Town Too Tough To Die Wants You

Living history. Bright red stagecoaches on the main street. Beautiful buildings from 1881... the Bird Cage Theatre, the Old Courthouse, Old City Hall and St. Paul's Church. Tombstone is the Real West -- a living town, not a theme park. You're invited!

1 RV or toad – visit for a weekend

So many places to stay only a block or two from the Allen St. boardwalk... with its attractions like the O.K. Corral. Super restaurants, and exciting evening entertainment at our classic saloons. And so much to do! Historical shootout re-enactments, and shopping at the fine stores in our historical district.

2 No better place for an RV stay

Summer: In the heat, it's Phoenix -20°... temperate High Desert country, no 'heat island' effect. Winter: mild and temperate. Gentle breezes sweeping in from the nearby Chiracahua and Huachuca mountains. Clear sweet air -- you can see 40 miles away. And the sunsets! Clean fresh water from unpolluted hillside springs. Best of all, friendly welcoming neighbors, with lots of fun social events, There's a great public library, a doctor-staffed health clinic right here in town, 24-7 EMTs at our firehouse, and excellent hospitals less than half-an-hour away in three nearby towns.

Breaking news --

Old Courthouse gets rare Earp collection!

Tombstone Old Courthouse State Park now has the rare Eric Wieder Collection of Josephine Earp's letters, old photographs, and other very significant articles. Will this settle the Earps vs. Clantons dispute? Come see!

Home Away From Home

Gadsden Hotel Lobby

Douglas, Arizona is an international destination for the culture-driven traveler. Located near the southeast corner of the state bordering Mexico, the vibrant community is a product of the merging of two countries. Here in Douglas we are the self-proclaimed Mexican Food Capital of Arizona. We are home to more than a dozen family-owned restaurants and food trucks that specialize in authentic Sonoran-style dishes. Enjoy the taste of the southwest while learning about the city's fascinating history.

Folklorico dancers

The City of Douglas invites you on a complimentary tour through our community. Discover Douglas offers interactive tours for all ages, showcasing the heart of Douglas - our historic downtown district. Among the historic landmarks you will visit is the Gadsden Hotel. Designed by architect, H.C. Trost, the Gadsden was built in 1907. Often called "the last of the grand hotels" the hotel's ornate lobby includes an Italian marble staircase, pillars embellished with gold leaf, and a 42-ft. Tiffany stained-glass mural.

Another tour stop is the world-renowned Art Car World, which is typically open by appointment only. The museum is dedicated entirely to the celebration and preservation of the popular mobile art form. The exhibit features a permanent collection of 42 popular Art Cars, each with their own unique story. Ride along the U.S.-Mexico border to the west side of town where we house our nation's First International Airport. The Border Air Museum at Douglas Municipal Airport is a stunning display of the area's rich aviation history.

Famed aviators such as Amelia Earhart have flown in to Douglas's airport which was once a destination for cross-country air derbies. The airport was also used to train pilots during the later stages of World War II.

Reserve your spot on the Discover Douglas tour van today by emailing visitorcenter@douglasaz.gov or call 520.417.7344. Tours meet at 10 a.m. at the Douglas Visitor Center, 345 E. 16th St., on the second and fourth Saturday of each month.

After your tour, relax at White Water Draw. Located 22 miles north of Douglas on Hwy. 191, the natural riparian habitat is home to a diverse population of migrating birds. In early November through March catch nearly 30,000

White Water Draw

Sandhill Cranes as they roost in the white waters.

Visit your new Home Away From Home in one of Arizona's most welcoming small cities. We can't wait to meet you!

BIENVENIDA AGUA PRIETA!

Medical Tourism, SOUTH of the Border

Cross our Southern border from Douglas, Arizona into Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico, to enjoy its storied history, excellent shopping, culture, incredible Sonoran dining flavors and a variety of affordable professional medical services.

These Sister Cities were developed by the Phelps Dodge Corporation in the late 1800s with the advent of copper mining in this region. As a result, sharing of traditions has created a close bond with its residents. Currently this municipality has approximately 120,000 residents, with a high literacy rate of 96.3% - many being bilingual. One of the first observations is how proud and friendly the locals are with their warm welcome to tourists.

As a thriving city, Agua Prieta is known as a popular shopping area, with craftsmen making saddlery and custom boots, jewelry, pottery, woven blankets, home furnishings, tiles and other Mexican wares. Products are competitively priced with acceptance of U.S. currency. Check the currency exchange rate before you go so you have a guide for pricing Mexican products and services, although many merchants mark their goods in U.S. dollars.

Dining is a must experience featuring Mexican favorites. Local food is influenced by the Yaqui kitchen. These incredible flavors of Sonora include locally raised, dry grass fed cattle providing some of the most exquisite meat flavors in the world. Several restaurants specialize in serving this premium beef, offering incredible Carne Asada Burritos, Tacos de Asada (char-broiled) and other meat delicacies. And if seafood is preferred, there are numerous options.

As Douglas is more tranquil, Agua Prieta is alive with excellent entertainment venues to dance the night away as locals know how to celebrate.

This border crossing leads you to a variety of medical services, dental specialties, a selection of pharmacies (farmacias), optometrists offering full eye care, and physicians specializing in a variety of services. A majority of those in the medical field are bilingual and some provide transportation from the border. Excellent hotels are available for those desiring to extend their stay. Go online to explore appropriate services for you. Anticipate reduced medical service pricing of 40-60% compared to similar services in the U.S.

This border crossing is fairly simple. You can drive into Mexico, but most prefer to park in a nearby lot in Douglas and walk across. Most all services are within an easy walk and local shuttles are available by most medical/dental services and hotels. There is usually no wait when returning on foot, but there may be one by vehicle, especially on weekends. There are no identification requirements to enter Agua Prieta, but be sure to have appropriate identification upon re-entry to the U.S. You may also be asked to declare your purchases with possible limits on certain items.

For your convenience, our promotional team on both sides of the border is dedicated to provide information about this incredible tourism and medical Mecca with ease of access at this friendly Douglas-Agua Prieta border crossing.

Adios, Amigo!

Access Medical Tourism Through Cochise County

by R.R. Sleight, Publisher, Compass Marketing Group, LLC

A number of snowbird and RVers desire access to affordable medical, dental and pharmaceutical services available in the Mexican border communities. Today, those primarily dependent on social security income can't afford to pay $1500+ in the States for a crown. The same is true for many Canadian winter travelers in Arizona.

As publisher of the AZ State RV Travel Guide, representing the RV industry and other Arizona community resource guides, I understand the "medical tourism" interest, especially by mature adults on fixed incomes. Fortunately, Agua Prieta (A.P.), Sonora, Mexico, is an excellent resource with its expanding medical services. The Douglas-Agua Prieta border crossing is simpler than most other crossings, from the historic City of Douglas in Cochise County, the most Southeastern community in Arizona. A.P. is a perfect south of the border setting to enjoy its Mexican "flavor" while obtaining affordable dental or medical treatment or pharmaceutical services. There are always safety concerns when traveling in Mexico, the key is being aware of your surroundings and stay on the primary streets. Even though A.P. is an expanding city (approx 100,000) it is safer than the other border communities from Arizona. Many visitors stay in Douglas and walk into A.P. during the day to shop, dine, tour and access the variety of affordable medical services. Transportation is available near the border and many medical services offer free transportation.

With continued interest we are dedicated to promoting this historic Southeastern Arizona region and providing information about the alternative crossing at Douglas/Agua Prieta, to experience a Mexican community with its expanding variety of medical services. Included are several professional medical clinics with a long term presence in Agua Prieta. We recommend you contact them or go online to learn about their background and excellent reputation before you retain their services, then make an appointment online or via their U.S. phone number. You will find that they are proficient in English for ease of communication.

Several medical and tourist-oriented services are listed below, to inform travelers about their specialties for dining, lodging and retail. We thank each of these participating services for contributing to this special Agua Prieta Medical Tourism section.

East Valley of Greater Phoenix

After you've wintered in the East Valley, you'll know about the convenience to shopping in Mesa and Scottsdale and the culture and sporting events in Phoenix and Tempe. Only a short drive east are breathtaking mountain vistas, history and the great Old West fun of the Apache Trail.

It all starts in historic Downtown Mesa, heading east on Main Street which turns into Apache Trail east of Higley Rd. When you veer off onto SR 88 heading east of Apache Junction you can really tell that you're out of the city, on the real Apache Trail. Continue on the sometimes mountainous road east to visit the Superstition Mountain Museum, Goldfield Ghost Town, Lost Dutchman State Park, then at Canyon Lake, relax on The Dolly Steamboat cruises and stop in Tortilla Flat for some local color.

Of course, there's lots to do and explore throughout this region to keep you active. Come stay in a local RV resort so you can enjoy many urban and outdoor opportunities.

LOCAL LOVE: MESA IS TOPS FOR FOODIES, FAMILIES & FUN!

Step outside your comfort zone and head out for an adventure that's close to home but feels like you're far, far away.

by Michelle Streeter, Visit Mesa

Mesa is the ultimate desert playground for incredible, sought-after outdoor adventure. In fact, Money magazine editors named the city the "Best Place for Outdoor Lovers", calling attention to the thousands of acres of natural wonderland surrounding our urban oasis. Locals that are looking to finally take that day trip or overnight break from their backyard can plan for an inspired Arizona getaway on the region's canyon-carved waterways and endless trails. Mesa is within minutes from three lakes and two rivers that allow for desert boating, fishing, rafting, paddle boarding, kayaking, water skiing, wake boarding and jet skiing and yes - tubing! Mesa has tons of outdoor outfitters ready to get you well equipped for adventure of every kind. Choose your Mesa adventure at VisitMesa.com.

Calling all foodies - did you know there is a linked collection of farms and gourmet food stands that take guests throughout the city and into our neighboring towns? The award-winning Fresh Foodie Trail™ is an adventure of another kind all centered on food, glorious food! Come hungry because if timed right, you'll be able to eat all three meals and then some on this trail. Our foodie trail stops serve homemade ice cream, peaches, heritage grains, olives, citrus and so much more. The trail stops share more than just great food; it's also a chance for the chefs-in-training to dive a little deeper and discover why dining local matters and they should get to know their farmer. Check out all the stops, download your Arizona Agritourism guide and plan your food journey at FreshFoodieTrail.com.

CHECK OUT THESE 10 HOT SPOTS IN MESA CITY LIMITLESS®

- 1. Downtown Mesa Art Walk: Look for nearly 40 public art sculptures along Main Street, all part of the city's permanent art collection. Visitors can download a walking guide at DowntownMesa.com.
- 2. The Apache Trail: Follow the footsteps of Native Americans and hopeful prospectors from the 1880s along miles of spectacular Superstition Wilderness.
- 3. Usery Mountain Regional Park Nature Center: Rangers will guide visitors into the discovery of Arizona's unique Sonoran Desert flora and fauna. Desert critters and crawlers are also on display. Check out their online calendar for in-park events that families will love.

4. Take A Swing! Mesa shines as one of the state's premier golf destinations and is home to more than 40 golf courses featuring breathtaking views set against beautiful mountains and blue skies.

5. Shopping & Spas: Relax and unwind with a refined collection of day spas and fun shopping experiences strewn throughout the city. With boutiques in Downtown Mesa and upscale shops at Dana Park Village Square, there's something for everyone.

6. Organ Stop Pizza: Home to the world's largest theater organ serving up great food and entertainment. The Wurlitzer organ, built in 1927, towers above the large group dining room providing restaurant goers with an over-the-top dining experience. Named by Buzz Feed as the quirkiest attraction in the Grand Canyon State!

7. Main Street Murals: Mural mania has taken over social media and Mesa has plenty of stunning, place-making backdrops to post on your feed. Perhaps the most iconic Mesa mural is the vibrant, colorful Downtown Mesa sign painted by Phoenix artist Lauren Lee.

For a larger than life experience, head to Mesa Contemporary Arts outdoor garden to capture the 35-foot tall mural by famed Los Angeles artist El Mac. The most dedicated sidewalk surfers can hunt for old school murals in our alleyways, and don't forget to capture your inner butterfly with the latest addition to our outdoor campus by Kelsey Montague.

8. Beer me! Mesa is a beer town with more breweries opening up each year. Whether you're looking for an IPA or a lager, Mesa has a growing brew crew ready to serve and even share some knowledge about what makes each handcrafted libation so special.

9. Treasure hunting by GPS! Did you know Mesa has its very own Geo Tours with Geocaching.com. Download the app, go out and find yourself some hidden caches and be sure to log it down and swing by our visitor center for your official pin!

10. Come hungry to Mesa's Asian District Mesa has such an incredible adoration for the Asian community, locals must check out the newest dining and sweet treats that can be found at Mekong Plaza, H Mart and of course, both the Asiana Market and the International Marketplace.

Superior Chamber of Commerce Presents an Activity-Packed Weekend with the 13th Annual Home and Building Tour

On January 30 and 31, 2021 the Superior Chamber of Commerce will present the 13th Annual Superior Home and Building Tour, providing attendees with a unique experience unlike other home tours they may have visited in the past. The tour's collection of eclectic homes and buildings, both new and old, will include fabulous renovations, the Old Superior High School (back by popular demand) "before-and-after" cottages that most people would have bulldozed, colorful and low-cost ideas and more.

The tour will feature the Magma Club community center (circa 1915), which houses a top-quality antique show, live music and the recently renovated Knights of Columbus building.

In addition to touring these fascinating buildings, attendees will have the opportunity to watch the famous Mata Ortiz potters from Mexico craft and fire their magnificent ware. These special pieces will be available for purchase. Other fun activities will include a pancake breakfast, a guided hike, live music, Wyatt Earp performing "Life on the Frontier" and other historical speakers.

Attendees will enjoy a fun-filled weekend in one of the friendliest towns they will ever visit.

The Superior Chamber of Commerce invites visitors to join them in this once sleepy town and help them on their mission to "Rebuild Superior." The tour will begin at the Chamber of Commerce, 165 W. Main St., Saturday 9-5 and Sunday 10-5. For more information and to view the complete schedule, visit superiorarizonachamber.org or call the Chamber at 520-689-0200.

Drive, Stay, Explore Arizona's Copper Corridor

Mila Besich, Executive Director, Copper Corridor EDC

Just a quick drive out of the Phoenix and Tucson metro areas, is Arizona's Copper Corridor. 11 unique and historically significant communities have adventures for you to experience. The scenic drives of the Copper Corridor include US 60, Highway 70, Highway 177 and of course the famous Apache Trail. You can find over 200 miles of twists, turns and scenic vistas.

Winkelman, Globe, Kearny, Oracle and Superior have RV parks or dry camping locations and the Tonto National Forest also has many locations to create a base camp for your adventure.

The Copper Corridor is home to many unique attractions such as Besh-Ba-Gowah Archeological Park, Tonto National Monument, Biosphere II, Arizona Zipline Adventures, Oracle State Park and the Boyce Thompson Arboretum. Five golf courses in the region provide a variety of challenging courses and there are two casinos where you can possibly find your fortune. History lovers will find original mining equipment in the Old Dominion Mine Park or stop by the Caboose Visitor Center in Superior to visit the mining trail. Bullion Plaza & Cultural Center, Bob Jones Museum, Cobre

Valley Center for the Arts and Gila County Historical Museum will allow you travel back in time to the early days of the region.

If you are looking for an outdoor adventure in the public lands of the region consider hikes on the Arizona Trail National Scenic Trail or Aravaipai Canyon, a float down the Gila River or climb the hoodoos of the Queen Creek Canyon. You can test your off-road driving skills with many four wheeling routes throughout the region.

Shopping in the downtowns of Superior, Globe, Miami and Oracle will help you find many unique treasures, from antiques and clothing, to home goods and more. Your dining options are endless - the biggest burgers, fresh sushi, homemade Italian, traditional and Asian-inspired BBQ and of course, Arizona's most authentic Mexican food comes from the Copper Corridor.

After all this adventure, there are many ways to relax at local spas and holistic care providers where you can find massage, skin care, reiki, reflexology and so much more. Make the Copper Corridor your center for fun, adventure and so much more.

SUPERIOR

ADVENTURE, ELEVATED

Superior is an outdoor enthusiasts dream! With destinations like the Boyce Thompson Arboretum and an expansive landscape offering beautiful vistas along hiking, biking, and bird watching trails, Superior is one of Arizona's best locations to experience the outdoors and catch magical sunsets that take your breath away.

Enjoy the pace of life in Superior's historic downtown. Whether you're into art galleries, shopping, historic guided tours or discovering authentic food, Superior has something for every palate.

Northern AZ

Arizona's northern high desert covers almost a third of our state and is home to such American icons as the Grand Canyon, Historic Route 66, the red rocks of Sedona and the Eagles' famous corner in Winslow. Perhaps not as well known are Prescott - with its charming old-time vibe - the original territorial capitol of Arizona, quirky, art-filled Jerome and some of the most awe-inspiring scenery in the West.

The high season here is summer, when high altitude provides cool temperatures and plenty of reasons to go outdoors.

Williams, west of Flagstaff, is a fun little town that is the starting point for the Grand Canyon Railway. Another great train ride is the Verde Canyon Railroad that leaves from Clarkdale, near Cottonwood, taking you on an unforgettable tour of the Verde Valley, as the early miners must have seen it.

Navajo and Hopi tribes share the land to the northeast, surrounding the wild, majestic Canyon de Chelly and Monument Valley.

Southern - Tucson

For big city attractions without big city congestion, Tucson gives its visitors a truly Southwestern experience. A stay in and around Tucson is sure to keep everyone entertained. Visitors of all ages enjoy hands-on museums, exciting attractions, enriching culture, heritage themed events and natural beauty. Those who love the outdoors enjoy bird watching, stargazing, rock climbing, mountain biking and golf.

Southwest of town on I-19 in Sahuarita, visit ASARCO Mineral Discovery Center to learn how ore is turned into copper. Further south, wander the historic artsy town of Tubac, visiting galleries and shops with local treasures. Tumacacori, just next door on I-19, is the ruin of a Franciscan mission built in 1795. Now a National Historic Park, you can tour the old church and grounds.

Heading west on St. Hwy. 86 is the little western town of Ajo with much charm and mining history. It boasts a museum and copper mine pit that stretches 1.5 miles long. It's also right next to the Organ Pipe Cactus National Monument, a natural wonder of cactus and wild desert beauty.

ADVENTURE AWAITS IN SOUTHERN ARIZONA

One of the things that makes Tucson so "attractive" to visitors are the great "attractions" found around the city and across the region – the name says it all. Taking a trip through Southern Arizona means you'll find an endless number of these great attractions, perfect for families, couples or even those who are traveling solo.

Explore the Universe at Kitt Peak National Observatory, just west of the city or at Flandrau Science Center, conveniently located on the University of Arizona Campus. Experience the unique flora and fauna at the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum, voted one of TripAdvisor's "Top 10 Museums in the U.S.". See science come to life at Biosphere 2, where you can visit all of Earth's life zones in one place.

If family fun is on your itinerary, be sure to visit Children's Museum Tucson and Oro Valley where kids will be wowed by the interactive exhibits. Discover tiny worlds of wonder in the intricate displays found at the Mini Time Machine Museum of Miniatures. And if it's the great outdoors your family craves, then you'll surely enjoy the short trip to the top of Mt. Lemmon. At over 9,000 feet above sea level, this alpine paradise offers cooler temps and spectacular mountain vistas. Insider tip: Download the Mt. Lemmon Science Tour App for your smartphone to learn the full story behind what makes this mountainous terrain so scientifically unique.

History buffs can travel through time at the Arizona State Museum, which boasts one of the largest collections of Native American artifacts in the country or at Mission San Xavier del Bac, one of the world's finest examples of Spanish Colonial architecture.

Head out to one of the area's many historic ranches to see the Old West brought to life.

If military history is your passion then be sure to stop at Pima Air & Space Museum, one of the largest privately-operated museums of its kind in the U.S. (pictured)

Just down the road from Tucson in Green Valley, AZ is the Titan Missile Museum, one of the few places on earth where you can actually tour the interior of a decommissioned Cold War-era nuclear missile silo.

NOTE: Due to COVID-19 some locations may have adjusted hours and restrictions in place. Please check with individual businesses to confirm before you arrive and stay safe.

Tortolita Mountains

Welcome to Tucson and Southern Arizona!

Find plenty of fun times and sunshine in the heart of the Sonoran Desert

Tucson is located in the heart of Southern Arizona's Sonoran Desert region. Surrounded by the world-renowned Saguaro National Park and five mountain ranges, this breathtaking landscape combined with Arizona's warm, sunny weather provides endless opportunities for exciting and educational outdoor activities.

Everything that makes Tucson one of the world's best outdoor destinations also makes it a must-add to any road-trip itinerary. With a wide range of RV parks and campgrounds across the region, plus an incredible array of museums and attractions, there's always something to discover.

From saguaro-studded desert to lush pine forests, Southern Arizona boasts a diverse landscape with a rich history. Many of the region's most accessible attractions are primarily outdoors in the open air, meaning you'll have plenty of space to explore and freedom to roam.

Discover history and mystery at Colossal Cave Mountain Park. Spot rare bird species in Madera Canyon. Visit Mission San Xavier del Bac for one of the finest examples of Spanish Colonial architecture in the United States. Whether you're looking for a thrilling outdoor expedition or a leisurely time taking in the culture and attractions of the region, Southern Arizona always delivers.

“Glamping” - Camping in luxury • This type of camping is grabbing the spotlight in leisure travel. Short for “glamorous camping”, glamping pairs traditional outdoor lodging with five-star fittings, guest service, dining and amenities. It is a step up from tent camping using luxury tents, classic Airstream campers fitted out with modern conveniences and tiny backwoods cabins with upgraded amenities. In other words, it is an outdoor experience, but with all the comfort and luxury of a first class hotel. Gen X and Millennial couples with a double income can enjoy a night or two outdoors in luxury without the higher cost of owning or renting an RV. This hospitality sector is less expensive to develop and operate with the ability to command premium daily rates. A research group, Arizton, recently reported glamping will reach an annual revenue exceeding $1 billion by 2024, averaging an annual growth rate greater than 15% through 2024.

The concept of glamping is not new - luxurious tent-living, or similar camping accommodations have existed for some time. Approximately six years ago, the concept caught on with young professionals escaping the fast pace of urban lifestyle by disappearing into an isolated, quiet nature setting while enjoying a luxurious, comfortable experience. Also called “boutique camping”, “comfy camping” or “posh camping” today it features unique structures such as bell tents, pods, safari tents, yurts, tipis, vintage trailers and tree houses. A new glamping site consists of a float tied to a dock for those who desire a floating experience.

Try it...enjoy an outdoor experience in luxury!

West Coast

If you're looking for water sports in the desert, you're sure to find some fun in the West Coast of Arizona. The Colorado River runs along this western border, providing life-sustaining water and recreation to all who visit. But there's much more to this area.

Near the northwest corner of the state is Kingman, the "Heart of Historic Route 66." More than 60 of Kingman's buildings are listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

North of I-10, Bullhead City, Lake Havasu City, Parker and Ehrenberg are havens to all who love water sports. Situated along the banks of the Colorado River, Lake Havasu City is famously the second home of the London Bridge, which spans the river. Parker has the only resort & casino on the river in this region.

A thriving hub of activity, Quartzsite sits at the crossroads of I-10 and Hwy. 95 to points north and south. This little town is featured in this region, so you won't have any excuse for not knowing what's going on in Quartzsite!

Arizona Peace Trail

by Mark Goldberg, Arizona Peace Trail Secretary (2020)

History

In 2013, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM), and the Arizona Game and Fish Department (AZGFD), conceived a plan to create a connector trail between Bullhead City in the north and Yuma in the south. The Arizona Sunriders ATV Club in Quartzsite, had been working with La Paz County since 2011 to create a loop OHV trail system in the Quartzsite area. The Bouse Ghost Riders ATV Club was also working with La Paz County to develop OHV recreational opportunities in Bouse.

In early fall 2013, The Bouse Ghost Riders ATV Club saw the opportunity to combine the trail efforts by The BLM, AZGFD, La Paz County and local OHV clubs into a single-trail focused effort. By 2014, a team of 14 OHV clubs, under the leadership of J.C. Sanders, along with support from BLM, AZGFD, Yuma County, La Paz County and Mojave County, formed the Arizona Peace Trail, Inc. (AZPT) which gained non-profit status in July 2015.

Trail Formulation and Experience

The AZPT member clubs worked diligently, spending many hours of field research and coordination with numerous federal, state and local jurisdictions, and private property owners to ultimately define a 750-mile loop trail linking Mojave, La Paz and Yuma Counties. The trail has loops and segments of varying length and degrees of difficulty for multiple types of OHVs, including 4x4s, side-by-side utility vehicles, all-terrain vehicles and motorcycles. The trail is open to motorized and non-motorized users. Trail identification signs are being installed along the entire trail.

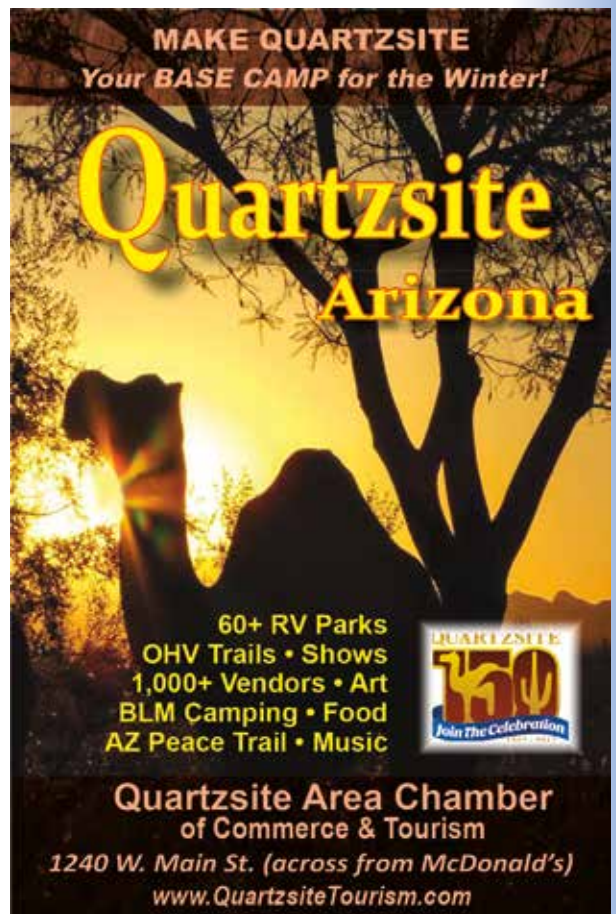

Trail users will experience dramatic landscape and ecosystem changes (elevation 170'-7070'), many varieties of cacti, red rock landscapes, winding sand washes and river bottoms, narrow canyons and ridge-line trails, historic sites, and fantastic scenic beauty. Expect to see Big Horn Sheep, coyote, raptors, owls, deer, desert tortoise and other wildlife.

Online: arizonapeacetrail.org

Many details about the Arizona Peace Trail are available on the Official Arizona Peace Trail website and Facebook. Of particular interest are links to detailed maps of the route, along with GPX and KML downloads for Global Positioning System devices. A trail itinerary is also provided as an example of a 5-day trip to circumnavigate the Peace Trail. Locations of services including: lodging, fuel, repairs, restaurants, and more are also available.

Plan your trip today to ride and enjoy all or part of the new Arizona Peace Trail, Arizona's Ultimate Off-Road Adventure!

West Valley

The western region of the Valley of the Sun holds a surprising variety of activities and attractions. The beautiful White Tank Mountains are the western-most range of the Valley. There's great hiking there, with amazing views of the entire West Valley. Further west is charming Wickenburg, a true Old West town, with fun festivals and shopping. In northern Peoria is Lake Pleasant, the second largest lake in Arizona, with camping, marina and lots of boating and fishing opportunities.

In Glendale, you can attend NFL games at the retractable field stadium where the Arizona Cardinals play, or NHL games, just next door, to cheer on the Phoenix Coyotes. The Sun Cities,

Surprise and El Mirage all offer great choices in golf courses, and in Litchfield Park you can see animals from around the world at the Wildlife World Zoo. Enjoy a game at one of four West Valley Arizona Cactus League stadiums from late February through March. See Cactus League info. on page 72

South along I-10 are the rapidly growing cities of Tolleson, Avondale, Litchfield Park, Goodyear and Buckeye before heading into open desert.

In all cities within the West Valley you can find fine dining, entertainment and much more in the way of scenic beauty and attractions. And a selection of museums and concert venues are nearby in downtown Phoenix.

White Mountains

For the greatest amount of natural beauty in the smallest area, this is where you need to go. Perched on the edge of the Mogollon (say mug-ee-yon) Rim, you can see snow-topped mountains and blooming spring flowers in the same glance. There are pine trees and high desert cacti growing on the same hillside. Flowing cool water and the bright Arizona sunshine combine for a magnificent outdoor experience.

In this "recreation wonderland" you'll find a wealth of recreational opportunities. Incredible lake and mountain stream fishing, hunting, camping, off-road ATVing, hiking and mountain biking abound throughout the Apache-Sitgreaves National Forest, various AZ state parks and the Fort Apache Indian Reservation. Enjoy skiing at Hon-Dah Resort & Casino, antiques in the smaller communities and home cooking at locally owned/operated eateries.

Get there from the Valley via State Hwy. 60 from the East Valley or Hwy. 87 from Mesa to Payson, then east on Hwy. 260. Come enjoy!

Hon-Dah Resort Casino

The Entertainment Center in the Heart of the White Mountains

Hon-Dah Resort Casino and Conference Center is owned and operated by the White Mountain Apache Tribe. Located in the heart of the White Mountains, the resort sits at 7,200 feet in elevation and is surrounded by tall Ponderosa pines. The White Mountains region of eastern Arizona is known for its scenic, high-country beauty, diverse outdoor recreation and mild climate — summer temperatures range in the 70s and 80s. Hon-Dah Resort is not only a luxury destination resort, but also a conferences/events hub and the premier entertainment center for the White Mountains region.

Luxury Hotel

The resort's 128 oversized, luxury rooms are reasonably priced and have too many amenities to mention here. Guests enjoy the all-season pool, hot tub and sauna in any weather, day or night. The magnificent lobby features a rockscape, waterfall, animal display and a massive fireplace. Adjacent to the lobby are Spirits Cigar Pub and the Gift Shop. The Hotel is rated Triple Diamond by AAA.

Conference Center

Hon-Dah's Conference Center is the largest and best equipped in the White Mountains region. The Center can accommodate business meetings, catered parties or special events for groups up to 700 attendees.

Great Food – Great Buffets

The Indian Pine Restaurant offers breakfast, lunch and dinner 7 days a week. Whether you have an appetite for a juicy steak or a pizza, the restaurant is the place to find quality food selections. If you like a feast, check out the daily breakfast, lunch and dinner buffets. For a special dining experience try the Friday night seafood buffet, Saturday night prime rib buffet or Sunday champagne brunch.

Awesome Entertainment and Events

For locals and visitors alike, Hon-Dah's entertainment is topnotch. Every Tuesday through Saturday nights the Timbers Lounge presents live music and dancing. The bands are some of the best in the U.S. and typically play in Las Vegas cabarets and other metropolitan nightclubs. The band selections are always varied — featuring rock, country, Latin or oldies music. Up and coming stand-up comedians are featured every Monday night at our Munday Funday Comedy Club. For Special Events, Hon-Dah has something for everyone: White Mountain Bike Rally and outdoor concerts, just to name a few.

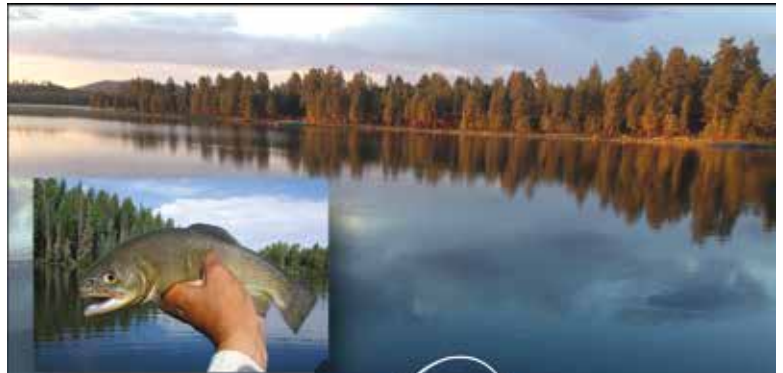

Casino Excitement

Over 800 slot machines, live poker, blackjack and promotion giveaways provide nonstop excitement and fun in Hon-Dah's casino. Progressive jackpots reach into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. Hon-Dah adds new slots regularly and you'll appreciate our EZ Pay coinless machines. Our Players Club members enjoy the cash, food, rooms and other rewards they receive for point redemptions.

RV Park and More

We've got over 500 beautiful sites nestled in the Ponderosa pines. The year-round RV Park is adjacent to the Casino and offers satellite TV, a laundry, showers and much more. The Convenience Store and Gas Station is the perfect place to stop for beverages, snacks and camping/fishing necessities. The gas prices are usually the lowest in the area. Stop by the Hon-Dah Ski and Outdoor Store for outdoor items for every season: ski and snowboard sales/rentals, clothing, fishing gear and permits — just to name a few.

It's time to Mogollon in the White Mountains

See some of the most far reaching scenery in Arizona. Stand atop a 2,000 foot drop along the top of the Mogollon Rim, (there are several pronunciations, take your choice, moo-guh-yohn or moggy-yawn), stretching 200 miles from Yavapai County to New Mexico. It is a true geological wonder hosting sedimentary, volcanic and metamorphic rock dating back to the Precambrian era.

Enjoy a leisure picnic or trek along the historic hiking and horseback riding trails.

Drive Forest Road 300 (Rim Road), a 43 mile scenic drive along the top of the rim with awe-inspiring panoramic vistas along the entire route. While unpaved, it is well maintained for ease of travel. It accesses several pristine lakes, of which have the some of the clearest water in Arizona.

And fishing in them is more than spectacular!

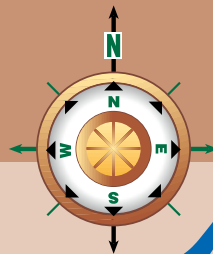

The easiest access is from Payson, (State Road 87), east on State Road 260, approximately 30 miles to the top of the rim. At the top, turn left to enjoy the spectacular views. The scenic Rim Road starts here, continuing west to State Road 87, north of Payson.

From early days in Arizona's territorial history, Yuma was considered to be the gateway to California. A settlement was built along with a bridge over the Colorado River and history was made.

Today, Yuma is a bustling community that carefully preserves its history and offers a comfortable winter climate for RVers to enjoy. The river makes water sports and fishing convenient, and varied wildlife refuges, parks and trails offer great ways to get outdoor exercise. For indoor fun there are nearby casinos, shopping and some historical attractions that demonstrate the role Yuma played in bringing commerce through Arizona.

Wellton, to the east of Yuma, is a smaller city with its own charms. There are plenty of small-town activities to keep you busy while you enjoy the mild temperatures and easy lifestyle.

A GATED 55+ SENIOR COMMUNITY

Arrive In The Fall ~ Stay Into Spring

In most regions, Arizona's most enjoyable weather is April through May and from mid-September through October. That's when we have warm days and patio-perfect evenings.

Baseball fans flock to Arizona to enjoy Arizona's most comfortable season and watch major league baseball spring training in ten Cactus League stadiums throughout the Valley and golfers travel to more than 300 courses across the state.

To beat the summer heat in central & southern Arizona, head north to Arizona's High Desert, in Northern Arizona and the White Mountains regions, with a cooler setting and a variety of outdoor recreation, small town celebrations and entertainment venues. The West Coast region along the Colorado River has plenty of water sports to entertain and keep visitors cool during the heat of summer.

Sports fanatics root for the Arizona Diamondbacks baseball team or Phoenix Mercury women's NBA basketball team, and start the football season early by viewing the Arizona Cardinals in the covered State Farm Stadium in Glendale during pre-season training, then cheering them on at their pre-season games.

Visit arizonaguide.com, the Arizona Office of Tourism's website for touring information throughout our grand state.

Grand Canyon's Timeless Allure

After his 1903 visit to the Grand Canyon, President Theodore Roosevelt remarked, "The Grand Canyon fills me with awe. It is beyond comparison - beyond description; absolutely unparalleled throughout the wide world... Let this great wonder of the nature remain as it now is. Do nothing to mar its grandeur, sublimity and loveliness. You cannot improve upon it. But what you can do is to keep it for your children, your children's children, and all who come after you, as the one great sight which every American should see."

He was of course not the first to see and be thrilled by this great treasure, but despite efforts by legislative advocates since 1882, it was not until 1919 that President Woodrow Wilson signed the Grand Canyon National Park Act into law.

Recognized as one of the seven natural wonders of the world, the Grand Canyon is 277 miles long, from 4,000 to 6,000 feet deep and 18 miles across at the widest point. The Colorado River's waters and the winds of millions of years have carved this majestic gorge out of layers of sedimentary rock. Geologists have dated the rocks at the top of the canyon at 250 million and at the bottom floor at just over 2 billion years old.

You can get to the South Rim by road or railroad, from the Grand Canyon Railway's station in Williams, AZ. Once there, you can spend a day exploring and admiring the views, or spend several days on guided or self-guided hikes to the Canyon floor. Hiking is not for the out-of-shape, so be prepared if you're interested in trying that.

The North Rim is a little more challenging to get to, but its rugged vistas and lack of tourist attractions makes this side of the Canyon worth the effort. It's open daily from May 15th through mid-October, with lodging and dining options for an overnight stay.

From October 15-November 27, you can get in during the daytime, until snow closes Highway 67 for the winter. It's probably a good idea to call ahead to find out if the roads are clear for travel.

Roosevelt would be pleased to know that the Canyon is much the same as when he saw it. Tourism has approached the South Rim with hotels, shops and information resources, but there has been little added to obstruct the breathtaking views and accessibility to hikers. It's worth the time to take in this "must see" view of a sunrise and/or sunset.

Find out more before you plan your visit at www.nps.gov/grca.

Offroading in Arizona

Courtesy of Arizona State Parks

Arizona State Parks and Trails offers many different ways for people to enjoy the diversity, beauty and excitement of the Grand Canyon State. Visitors and residents alike can experience adventure within a network of off-highway vehicle (OHV) trails across the state. Arizona State Parks and Trails can help you find adventure in parks along the Colorado River or amid the picturesque scenery of the Sonoran Desert. Maybe a lakefront getaway with quick access to OHV trails is more your speed; I've got that too! With so many options, there truly is something for everyone here in Arizona!

Arizona State Parks and Trails offers unique experiences for RV travelers and plenty of options for those seeking experiences off the beaten path. The Off-Highway Vehicle Program has been striving to create a user experience that enhances visits to Arizona's state parks for recreational enthusiasts for over a decade. By adding several new team members and a more personal hands-on approach to engaging Arizona's vast OHV community, Arizona State Parks and Trails has accomplished trail maintenance and construction, statewide trail mapping systems, economic impact studies, and extensive grant work.

One of the most important aspects of the OHV program's success is the Off-Highway Vehicle Ambassador Volunteer Program. This innovative and award-winning volunteer program enables private citizens to work with federal, state and local land managers and public safety officials to promote responsible off-highway vehicle recreation. These volunteers contribute their time, experience, and local knowledge to create a positive image of their recreation activity. Volunteers also identify and record road, trail and other resource issues, and educate OHV users on responsible OHV use. There are currently more than 150 volunteer ambassadors statewide that help keep Arizona's trails open and maintained. The success of this program was recently recognized by the Arizona Parks and Recreation Association, when the Ambassador program received the volunteer of the year award at this year's banquet.

"Show Me Rides" introduce riders to new OHV areas across Arizona, are organized regularly by ambassadors, and occur throughout the state. Riders and ambassadors review maps, riding etiquette and safety information before each ride. Ambassadors then lead the group on a memorable OHV adventure.

Please remember to ride safe, ride smart and ride sober! To learn more about off-highway trails, "Show Me Rides," the Arizona Peace Trail, or other updates about how to enjoy trails and experiences in and around Arizona's state parks, visit azstateparks.com/ohv or call 1-877-MY-PARKS.

Arizona Facts

The capital of Arizona is Phoenix. Arizona fills 113,417 square miles, making it the sixth largest state. Its borders touch California, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Mexico.

State Flag: The top half has 13 stripes that pay tribute to the original U.S. colonies. They are arranged to depict the western setting sun. The copper star in the center was included when Arizona was the top-producing state of copper. The blue and yellow colors used are the Arizona State colors and the blue and red are the same shades found on the U.S. flag.

State bird: Cactus wren

State flower: Saguaro cactus bloom

State mammal: Ring-tail cat

State amphibian: Arizona tree frog

State fish: Apache trout

State neckwear: Bola tie

State tree: Palo Verde

State reptile: Ridge-nose rattlesnake

State song: "Arizona March Song" by Margaret Row Clifford. An alternate, more popular song is "I Love Arizona" by Rex Allen, Jr.

Arizona became the last state in the continental U.S. on February 14, 1912.
